Message from our Rector

The past few weeks have seemed like one long party, the highlight of which was without doubt the jubilee parties, celebrating the diamond jubilee of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth.

What had stated as typical bank holiday weather (cold and wet) certainly improved on Bank holiday Monday as the street party in Christleton got into full swing.

It was a joy to see so many people gathered together in the glorious sunshine, neighbours, friends, perhaps even strangers, but all coming together to share, to laugh and to celebrate.

As I wandered round, enjoying the company of so many people, being offered food and drink. It was good to be part of a community, where each member of the community worked for and considered the needs of each other. Throughout the afternoon, I was constantly reminded of the passage from the second chapter of the Book of the Acts of the Apostles;

“They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe, and the apostles did many wonders and miraculous signs. All the believers were together and had everything in common. Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone, as he had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people.*”

And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved”.

Sometimes it can be difficult for us to fully engage with Holy Scripture, we are after all, geographically and historically so far removed from those first believers and yet through the experiences of the events such as the Christleton jubilee street party, we can look in, rather like looking through a window, into the life of the early church and experience the sense of community which they lived, the sharing with and caring for each other, with young and old mixing together in a true sense of community and fellowship.

My prayer is that the outpouring of fun and fellowship which we were privileged to experience and enjoy over the past few weeks may lead us into a deeper awareness of the value and strength of community and that we may all be blessed through our experiences.

Your faithful servant

Malcolm

Nature Notes.

Swans & Cygnets. Kites & Hedgehogs.

The saga of our swans continues. Following their dramatic capture, from just off the A41 and their safe release onto the canal, reported as late news in the last edition, their adventures have continued. For over a week I had reports of all four surviving cygnets being seen on either the cob or pen's backs. Sometimes they would be split in different configurations, but something was amiss, and I have only seen cygnets hiding on the adults backs on a handful of occasions, but never for such a prolonged period. My theory now is that as the air temperature had dropped dramatically from the time they were born they were very cold, and were huddling behind their parent's wings for warmth. They seemed to be growing well and looked secure but earlier in the week I found one cygnet missing, and so there were three left from the initial seven eggs. Why had the cygnet disappeared! Well I think I found the answer about 400yards from where I had last seen them. On the canal bank near Rowton a fisherman had caught a huge pike and was taking the hook out of its mouth to release it back into the canal. One of the main predators of cygnets are pike who are known to take even quite large cygnets. I have never seen a pike on the canal, but there is a distinct possibility that this was the culprit. Since this incident the swans have appeared feeding on people's gardens, and less on the water. I just hope the other three cygnets manage to survive.

I've had four reports in the last three weeks of a red kite being seen in the skies over Christleton, three have been from the Plough Lane area, so it's just possible that there is a kite roosting out somewhere close, perhaps looking for a territory, or just resting in a new area. They are really dramatic birds with a distinctive red v shaped tail. I hope you spot one.

Other sightings this month which are really welcome are of hedgehogs. I've had reports from all over the village and have seen and photographed one myself. It must be many years since we've had so many in the area, and the fact that some have been seen with young, is even more welcome. I can't explain why this has happened but it is really good news that they are making a comeback. Perhaps people have taken on board suggestions made on television and are keeping an eye open, and finding space in their gardens for these delightful, but prickly creatures.

MISSING

The gremlins have been busy in St James church recently.

A pair of folding steps and a green garden rubbish bin have gone missing recently & we have no idea where they are. I have ordered a replacement green garden bin.

Can I therefore ask for the return of these 2 items as soon as possible please, particularly the steps.

We don't mind anyone borrowing but we do like to know who and where they are going so if anyone wants to borrow items from St James in future, please contact me, the Verger (335469).

We will be introducing a 'sign in/sign out' book shortly for items borrowed from St James so that we can keep track of where things are going.

While on the subject of bins – would people please make sure :-

- Dead flowers from the churchyard are put in the GREEN BIN or take them home.
- Brown/black plastic plant pots should go in the BROWN BIN.
- Plastic carrier bags should go in the BLUE BIN.

Thank you very much.
John Milton – Verger

The Queens Diamond Jubilee Events.

I think everyone in the village can take heart from the wonderful party spirit that has existed over the past 10 days. I don't think that I've ever seen so many smiles, despite the sometimes atrocious weather. The organisers of each event must be congratulated for the time and effort which went into so many of the activities. The unsung heroes who put up all of the decorations around the village, and especially those who put out and took in the large number of tables and chairs needed. Congratulations to all the groups/streets and closes who got into the spirit of the occasion to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of a very special lady.

Many of the activities have raised funds for different worthy causes, and I haven't got details of the amounts of money raised as I write. My Jubilee Heritage Walks raised £200 for the Hospice of the Good Shepherd. Over 75 people took part and although the weather was at times dreadful there was a wonderful camaraderie between us all, and I hope everyone learned a lot about our wonderful Parish Heritage as well as getting exercise. I hope to produce a book of these walks later in the year, so that even more people can enjoy them.

The Christleton Wednesday Group Jubilee Lunch was a great success, with the Parish Hall full of members and friends enjoying a great meal and good company.

The Diamond Jubilee Service of Thanksgiving at St James' on June 3rd 2012 was preceded by a peel of bells by our tower ringing team, assisted by several guest ringers. The service itself arranged by the Rector and Steve Roberts our Musical Director was based on the one to be used later at St Paul's in London. Many favourite hymns were sung with great enjoyment and included Praise my Soul the King of Heaven, Guide me, O thou Great Redeemer, O Praise ye the Lord, I vow to thee my country, Christ is made the sure foundation, and the choir & congregation excelled with a specially written version of All People that on earth do dwell, arranged for the Coronation in 1953 by Ralph Vaughan Williams. The Choir also sang the 150th Psalm using the famous setting by Stamford. The Rector Rev. Malcom Cowan preached the Sermon, and was assisted throughout the service by Doctor Wayne Morris.

The Service was followed by a celebratory Lunch in the Parish Hall, and prizes given to the children with the best fancy dress.

There were many excellent Jubilee Street Parties in the village on the Sunday afternoon, but I think the main street party in Village Road on Monday 4th organised by Phil & Sue from Village Stores with help from members of the Institute, and Ian & staff from the Ring O Bells was just a wonderful joyous occasion. It was good to see many of the residents of the local Nursing Homes enjoying their day too. There were smiles on everyone's faces, and it was so warm that sun hats were sent for, and suntan lotion was having to be applied by the bucketful.

There can be few days in our village history that can exceed the joy and excitement that existed on that day. Congratulations to everyone who was involved, and for the hundreds of people who turned up to make the day such a special occasion. The culmination of the days activities took place at Cheshire View, and on a glorious evening Ian Brown with the support of Brian Rose who had arranged the evenings proceedings, did the honours in lighting the Jubilee Beacon at 10.26pm, assisted by the Blue Peter Viewer Katherine Dewar who had won the competition for designing the Queen's Jubilee Logo. The night sky was glorious as we observed the Beacons on Frodsham Hill and Beeston Castle, and the whole scene was further illuminated, by a large moon appearing through the trees from the south. DC

THANK YOU

A very big 'thank you' for a wonderful Diamond Jubilee Party on Monday to Phil and Sue and to all the staff at the Institute and Ian and staff at the Ring O Bells who worked so hard to make the day such a memorable one.

Well done everyone

People in the News

The Confirmation Service, with Holy Communion held on Sunday 20 May, was taken by the Right Rev. John Hayden, Bishop of Kilimanjaro, assisted by The Rector and Dr Wayne Morris.

Five local candidates Mark, Lauren, Sophie, Isobel and Amber, supported by family and friends were welcomed by the Bishop, who later laid hands on them confirming them as members of the church.

This service is always a very moving occasion and is a very important step for the candidates as they proceed through their Christian Journey. In his sermon the Bishop related some of his adventures in serving Christ in many parts of the world, giving us insight into the work of the church in so many remote and sometimes dangerous places. The service was followed by excellent refreshments in the Parish Hall.

CHRISTLETON HOME WATCH

If you are not a member of a Home Watch group in Christleton or one of the surrounding villages, or there is not a group in your street or road, why not volunteer to be a coordinator in your locality? A coordinator sends out bulletins from the Police and Partner Agencies on a regular basis, via email, (by blind copy so that your email address remains private) from a dedicated Home Watch email address, e.g. bikergrovehomewatch@... All coordinators are registered with the Police, in Northwich. Once you have set up a group, it takes only a few minutes each week to service the group via e-mail. The information is both useful and interesting.

To find out if you have a Home Watch group in your street or road, to start receiving the bulletins or to volunteer as a coordinator, please email

Canon Lionel Garnett. Rector of Christleton
1868-1911

This year we celebrate the centenary of the death of this great man, who transformed the village as we know it, during his ministry between 1868-1911. He died from small pox contracted whilst working in the village, at his daughter's home in Belfast, in the very week that the Titanic went down. You can imagine that his death was rather insignificant nationally after this tragic event so was rather overlooked in the press of the day.

After 37 years as Rector, Lionel Garnett had been offered the status of Honorary Canon of Chester in August 1906, and a proud parish presented him with an illuminated address, fees and a hood for his MA degree. Mrs Garnett received a silver tea service and bracelet. His departure from the Parish however was rather mysterious. The following extracts come from Parish papers. "In November 1910 the departure of Canon Garnett" within the next few months for reasons that cannot be given" was announced. He wrote in January 1911, 'I have seen 42 New Years Days as Rector of Christleton. I have grown old here and my ways are old. My successor, Reverend G.M.V. Hickey, comes as a young man and will no doubt bring new ways.' He was the first married Rector for more than one hundred years and seemed to regard his parishioners as his extended family. Advice was always forthcoming; whether it was on how to make a good home made drink at 3d a gallon for harvesters, or how to create cheap blankets for the winter. "Paste a few newspapers together to the required size and spread them beneath the quilt" "Paper is a very powerful non conductor of heat, and acts like a very warm blanket. The only objection to the plan is the crackling sound of the paper, but then you must not expect to get everything for a penny or so!"

Always having to raise money for many village schemes, he was frugal with expenses (except in the building of the church) and in 1891 decided to change the evening service in winter to Thursdays at 7.00pm to preserve fuel. "The fire lighted for Thursday evening will warm the church for Friday morning's service" He paid for the excess costs of the magazine himself, and the bound volumes of the first six years currently in the Cheshire Record Office, are impressive. They contain a great range of religious tracts, articles about everything from equal rights to British birds, poetry and long serial stories with beautiful etchings. In 1881 he had cut down to free sheets of local news only, which were also hand written for a while in 1883, until circulation improved again. He never failed to bring the needs of individuals before the parish in the belief that help would be forthcoming. In March 1904 he wrote “ Problem: a labouring man with a wife and family, himself nigh unto death for five months- a child as ill almost as long, Doctor’s Bill £8 17s 6d- how is he to pay it? The best solution - a little help. It is a deserving case and I shall be glad to receive contributions.

His stewardship of the village was immense and he was responsible, together with his great supporter, Lucy Anne Ince, for the re building of much of the village, including the Church, both Girls’ and Boys’ Schools, Christleton Institute and Christleton Grange. He started the Fete and Village Show to raise funds for both the building and running costs of both schools and the re-building of the church. He formed two brass bands to give the young men of the village something to do; he encouraged the bell-ringers; and started Cricket, Rugby and Football clubs. He and his family were involved in all aspects of the village. He gave the Lych Gate in memory of his mother and was responsible for persuading Lucy Anne Ince to erect a Pump House on the Village Green.

His personal interests were in sport. He was a keen Ice Skater and loved cricket, which he described as “one of the oldest and best English games, calculated to do nothing but good” Canon Lionel is listed as a first class cricketer for Middlesex in the MCC Players List, and there is a local legend that he invited WG Grace to come to play in the village. I cannot find evidence for this claim, except that Canon Lionel was a friend of Albert Hornby a famous English Sportsman and Captain of England at Cricket and Rugby, who was also from a large family estate in Lancashire. Hornby did entertain Grace at Nantwich which is only eighteen miles from Christleton and it could have been whilst Grace’s team Gloucestershire was on their way to play Lancashire at Old Trafford. Hornby also studied at Oxford. The Rector had been a housemaster at Eton before coming to Christleton and had been in charge of rowing.

In the history of the Parish of Christleton he was a giant: dictatorial and Victorian in every sense, but he was a devout Christian who gave himself honestly and entirely to the service of his parish in changing and difficult times. DC
